American Affairs. The position of affairs in the United States continues uncertain and anything but satisfactory. The growing political power of the blacks is distasteful to the mass of Southern whites, and in Washington City, where negroes have been elected to fill most of the municipal offices, an indignant remonstrance has been made by the white City Councillors, who have resigned in a body. At New Orleans-a former hotbed of Secession -an election is shortly to be held, and it is said the blacks will win easily. The Confiscation Bill of Thad. Stevens slumbers in the wemb of futurity; but there is little hope that the more conservative statesmen will be able to prevent its passage at the next sitting of Congress. This bill provides for the deprivation of rebol whites of their property and its division among the loyal population of the South. The bill has peculiar reference to the large tracts of fortile land which before the war were worked by slaves. The bill is regarded with delight by those people in the Southern States who are not fortunate enough to own property, and when the representatives of that class take their seats in Congress, we may expect to hear of a great revolution in the status of Southern society. As President Johnson's popularity has waned of the North, it has increased in a corres. ponding degree down South. Mr Johnson and his Premier have just been making a tour through North Carolina and Virginia, where they were enthusiascically received and entertained by the people. Before the death of Mr Lincoln, Mr Johnson (who was then Vice President) was regarded as the most radical of the regarded as the most radical of the two; but after the reins of Government had been placed in his hands, he became a staunch Conservative and has nobly stood between Congress and the Southernors in defence of the latter. The Governor of Louisiana having been ordered to vacate his the two the southernors is expected to make her ten knots, and it is said that when she is launched for two the southernors in defence of the latter. having been ordered to vacate his office by the Military commander of the district for alleged disloyalty, doclined to deliver up the books and papers to his successor, whereupon the commander sent an armed force and turned the obnoxious officer out at the point of the bayonet. Had this outrage been perpetrated in Russia it would have been regarded as an act of despotism; but having occurred in a land where Republican institutions are presumed to exist, and where the voice of the people is supposed to be the voice of God, it hardly

EDITOR BRITISH COLONIST-SIR,-I have read Mr D. Babington Ring's powerful effusion in your to-day's paper and am so struck with wonder and admiration at the depth of erudition and legal lore he therein displays, that I am led to inquire why the gentleman's brightest and most effective points have been reserved for the columns of a public journal instead of having been advanced and urged in their proper place: a Court of Law. Mr Ring is a sort of mantel-ornament to the Bar of this Colony. He is deeply read in the classics, and has poetry at his fingers' ends. He is respectable and respectedamiable, kind and charitable. Moreover, in social life he is as confiding as a child. But with (newspaper) law he is a perfect gianta Samson-a Hercules. He can turn black into white or white into black, and furnish you excellent "authority" for either color. He can pile law on law and twist and turn his adversary upside down or inside out without the slightest apparent effort or compunction,-and leave him a maimed and mangled "limb," in better style and with more grace than any other legal gentleman I have met in the colony. Neither will be be put down by subterfuge, and as for argument, it has no effect upon him. Like the village schoolmaster, village schoolmastel, "- Even though vanquished he could argue still; While words of learned tength and thundering sound, Anazed the gazing rustics ranged argund; And still they gazed, and still the wonder grew, That one small head could carry ail he knew,"

The only difficulty being, as I have said above, that beyond the newspaper his legal lore scorns to travel. Take him in your colum s and he demolishes Bench and Bar by quoting Mr Justice Lush, and then stops the mouth of either to reply by pronouncing himself the Leader-the Sir Oracle-of the Bar in the Colony. It is quite true that, in other Colonies the Attorney General or the Solicitor General is regarded as the " Leader of the Bar, "ez officio; but inasmuch as Mr Bing was the first (and only !) barrister who walked from his hotel to the Court in full " canonicals,"-to the manifest awe of unfettered Siwashes and the amusement of ill-bred foreigners-and, moreover, as he once acted as Attorney General, during the temporary absence of Mr Cary, at Cariboo, I am not disposed to dispute his right to the title. Perhaps he has carned it ; but if so, I now grope in the blackness of mental midnight in the Supreme Court. It does not matter; that Mr Justice Lush wrote his opinion thirty years ago, and that he had reference to criminal jurisprudence and not to civil; nor does it matter a fig that the rule has never been adopted in any English or Colonial Court, and is as obsolete as most of the rules in force when Mr Ring was first called to the Bar. Its quotation in a newspaper ensures the party quoting it against contradiction, and it is good enough law for the "people." But carry it into Court and quote it there, Mr Sir Oracle, then-" mark how plain a tale shall put thee down!"

EX UNGUE LEONEM.

Mr Babington Ring's Letter.

EDITOR BRITISH COLONIST :- The above letter has been pretty freely commented upon by our citizens to-day. The feeling with many is, that Mr Ring in this public expression of his sentiments is right as a Man, but wrong as a Barrister; that, doubtless, instancee abound in which Barristers conceive they have a grievance against a Judge, but that the making of a parade of the same before the public, through the press, is most unusual and improper, that it is a breach of professional etiquette-nay, and what perhaps is still worse, that it is a vulgar error. Napoleon's Naval Preparations.

I came down from La Rochelle yesterday for teame down from La Roomette yesterday to the purpose of learning something of the ex-traordinary naval preparations which Napo-leon is undoubtedly making with some object, and have to-day been over the entire navy yard and have seen the vessels which are now rapidly approaching completion. Six vessels of different sizes and descriptions are on the stocks here. Formest among them

Formost among them is an iron-clad frigate called the Guienne, is an iron-clad frigate called the Guienne, which it is expected will be launched in August next, and which will be one of the most formidable vessels in the French navy. She is five thousand tons burthen, with an engine of a thousand horse power, and is pierced for fifty-six guns, among which will be fourteen three hundred pound guns, carrying cylindrical and conical shot and shell. She is the litter with a share than the greatly divine. cylindrical and conical shot and shell. Sho is built with a sharp stern, thus greatly dimin-ishing the chances of a successful 'fire in the rear,' or of the successful 'punching' of the spur from a ram. She is covered with iron plate of fifteen centimetres in thickness above, and twelve centimetres below the water line (The centimetre is a little more than one: third of an inch, and is expressed by the deci-

The experiment is to be tried of sheathing these with copper, in order to prevent their oxydization. Besides her broadside guns she is pierced for an immense bow gun, directly under the bowsprit, and the commandant's cabin, which is away aft, is so arranged that the side and stern windows may be easily taken out and five more guns put in. On deck and amidships is what the engineers, adopt-ing the English word, call a 'blockhouse,' which is an iron-clad tower, not intended for guns, but simply for a look out for the comthe Emperor will come down here to see her

Beyond her is in course of construction the Tigre, a vessel built very much upon the model of the Stonewall, with a formidable spur, and twin screws working independently of each other, and enabling her to turn with or each other, and enabling her to turn with rapidity and ease, and making her as valuable for defence as for attack. Then there are two ironclad corvettes, with towers and barbette guns, and a wooden frigate and corvette build-ing. Great activity prevails in the yard, and it is understood that all these vessels are to be completed and launched before next March; and it is known three other vessels of the and it is known three other vessels of the character of the Tigre are being built at other character of the Tigre are being built at other navy yards in France—the Bellier at Cherbourg, the Ocrbere at Brest and the Boule Dogue at Lorient. While at Cherbourg, be sides the Bellier, six other vessels, all of which are to be finished in the course of the present year, are in progress of construction. These are the Volta, a desputch boat, to be completed in August, and the Jeanne d'Arc, an iron-clad frigate, which will be launched in September, and the Estrees, another, which will be ready for sea in June. Two iron-clad ships, the Suffren and the Atalante, are being hurried, and a fast-sailing corvette, the Cloche provokes newspaper comment. It has been truly said that the greatest

navy yard another vessel, which, aithough she has been launched and is ready for work when oceasion requires, is now kept carefully housed occasion requires, is now kept carefully noused and removed from the vulgar gaze. She is an experimental mondescript craft, called the Plotgenr, built, I am informed, something after the model of the Winans 'cigar boat,' and is intended for submarine work. It is said that a model of the boat will be placed in the Grand Exposition, in which case I shall send you, a description of it.

Rochefort was wisely selected as the naval station at which all these vessels were to be built. It is an out of the way quiet place, where few foreigners and fewer natives ever come, and were it not for an occasional newspaper correspondent looking around for some paper correspondent towards around for some thing extraordinary making his way here, the government might go on building ships to the end of time without anything being known about it. At mission to the navy yard is very difficult to be obtained, and it was only by great exertion and the exhibition of a fair share of the anion, so necessary to a newsthe of the aplomb, so necessary to a newspaper man, that I was permitted to enter it.

Besides the work in the Navy Yard here the government is engaged in the construction of an entire new port, which is being hollowed out away inland, beyond the town, adjoining the railway station, and where ships can be entirely concealed from view on the water side. NEW YORK, June 5-Col. Cole, brother of Senator Cole, of California, murdered one Hiscock. Hiscock was chairman of the Judiciary Committee of the House during the last session of the Legislature. Cole was arrested and has made a statement to the effect that he entered the army as a private, and rose during his five years service, to a When he went south in 1864 his wife was sick, and was, at one time expected to die. He desired Hiscock, who was a relation, to look after her. Afterwards, he made msulting propositions to her, and being refused, made a forcible attempt. He professed penitence, and she concealed his conduct from her husband. She became dejected under a sense of her shame. A week ago, Hiscock met me and asked me when I was going away again. His guilty manner aroused my suspicions, and I learned all the facts from my wife's lips. He, Cole, intended to take her to her sister in Brooklyn and then return and force Hiscock at pistol's mouth to confess, beg forgiveness or leave the country. He arrived at Albany en route, and thinking he had better have it off his mind, went to the hotel and at the sight of his wife destroyed and his children disgraced, he became maddened. At the coroner's inquest, Cole stated that when Hiscock was within twelve feet of him he drew a pistol from his pocket and deliberately leveled it at his head, almost touching his face, he fired, and Hiscock fell without an exclamation. Cole said on the way to the station-house that Hiscock had dishonored his simple and innocent wife. He was much affected and kept repeating that fact, apparently much

The Spracuse Journal says that positive and conclusive proof exists that the statements of Mrs Cole, on which her husband killed His ock, are untrue.

The tone of the Albany press is much excited by interested parties, and is having a tendency to excite a prejudice against the prisoner. Cole's counsel was Mrs Hartung's counsel. The Troy Times intimates that the deed his new Journal of Cutaneous Medicines and Diseases of the Skin, is eloquent on the "Dangers of Dyeing the Hair." "Art," he tells us, " is progress ve; a few years back, when the mania for altering the shade of color of the hair first broke out, ladies were color of the bair first broke out, ladies were content with washing their heads with an alkaline solution, soda or potash, until a considerable portion of the coloring matter was removed, and with it, of course, much of the freshness and silky beauty of the hair. This bleached hair, which approached artificial or dead hair in its qualities, was then polished with a little oil, and the process was complete. But chemistry has now enabled the artisans of hair in move a stage converds. plete. But chemistry has now ecanical me artisans of hair to move a stage onwards; to add a dye in the place of the abstracted natural color, and to convert the head into a kind of colored map. It comes to pass thus: the head is washed with an alkaline solution, and the colored map are the stage of the page. the head is washed with an alkaline solution, and dried near the fire; this part of the process occupies an hour. The manipulator then brushes through the hair the dye, an acid solution of varying strength, and the exhausted and dry hair is made to absorb this fluid by the aid of hot tongs and hot plates of metal. This latter part of the process demands of the area of not rongs and not plates of metal. This latter part of the process demands care and skill, and time also it would appear; for our informant, the lady operated upon, reports that the whole proceeding occupied seven hours and a half. But at last came the result, not the end, but the beginning of the end. When the lady rose from the operating chair, she was charge rose from rose from the operating chair, sho was charmed by the vision of a pale gold cheeckure, her natural color being a dark brown, and she went to her home in perfect chight. But in a very few hours the vision began to change. first to a bright orange yellow, and then to a deep yelk of egg yellow that was perfectly bideous. To correct this evil, another operation was to be gone through, another seven hours and a ball of tedious and paintal man-ipulation; and this time, like the last, with a similar result,—first the golden sheen of the rising sun; but, as evering advanced, a deep safton and red tint like the setting sun por-tending a coming storm; or, rather, like the elfin locks of the demons of a pautomime. elfia locks of the demons of a pautomime.

The lady's disappointment and vexation may be more easily imagined than described; she was advised that nothing more could be done; that, it she disapproved of her present appearance, her head must be shaved; and she submitted to the necessity and to the consequent annoyance of wearing a wig. The proceeding we are now discussing is called the 'instantaneous' process, and we have styled it an operation, having in our mind a surgical undertaking; the suffering was so severe, says our informant, that she

THE PRINCESS OF WALES .- The progress of her Royal Highness continues satisfactory, reports the Lancet, though it is necessarily slow. She still requires and receives the most careful attention on the part of the surgons in charge of her. Mr Prescott Hewett has been associated with Mr James Paget in attendance upon the Princess, and a visit is paid twice daily by these gentlemen. The prevalent rumor that Sir William Fergusson has seen the Royal patient is not coreect. We regret, writes the British Medical Journal, to state that during the past week there has been very little progress indeed in the condition of the knee-joint of her Royal Highness. There have been slight alternations, but the present condition is very little in advance of that which we reported last week. On some nights the Princess has slept well; at other times her rest has been disturbed, and there have been periods of pain. The general health of the Princess has not, however, we are happy to learn, suffered Juring the week; and medical men will know how to appreciate this important and favorable fact. The limb is still confined in splints, and slung, to give it ease. We hope in our next impression to give a more entirely satisfactory report.

LORD AMBERLEY'S SUNDAY BILL .- The following is, according to the Morning Advertiser, substantially the Bill of Viscount Amberley for the amendment of the 31st Geo. III. c. 49, and in favor of opening St. Martin's Hall and similar places for lectures, discussions, &c., on Sundays ;-" That from and after the passing of this Act, nothing contained in the above-recited Act shall apply to any house, room or other place which shall be opened or used upon the evening of the Lord's day, for the purpose of public debate upon any subject whatsoever. or of the delivery of lectures, and to which persons shall be admitted by the payment of money, or by tickets sold for money; and no person keeping such house, room or place, or taking part in, or delivering, or conducting, or managing such public debates or ctures, or collecting or receiving money or tickets from, or delivering tickets to, persons assembling to hear such public debates or lectures, or advertising or printing, or putlishing advertisements of any meeting for the purpose of such debates or lectures, shall be liable to any forfeiture or penalty for so doing." The remaining slauses of the bill interdict the supply of refreshments in such places, and make the penalty for so doing a fine of £50. THE YATES STREET WARD VACANCY-The | minster last evening. Sheriff yesterday noon proceeded to hold a nomination for Councillor to represent Yates street Ward. M. W. Gibbs, seconded by Comox for Indian consumption. W. K. Bull, nominated John Banks. Councillor Hebbard, seconded by Arthur Bunster nominated James Fell. Willis Bond, seconded by E. Phelps, nominated Tommy Innis. The nominations having been declared closed, addresses were delivered by Messrs Gibbs, Bond, Fell, Bull, Innis and Hebbard, and a show of hands having been taken, Mr Fell was declared to have received the majority. A poll was demanded for Mr Innis, and the Sheriff announced that it would be held to-day, between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. The proceedings were characterised by a flow of good humor and harmless " chaff" that added a zest and interest to the nomination, which otherwise would have proved a very tame and spirit-less affair. THE following are the results, says the Mechanics' Magazine, of the trials of various American breech-loading rifles as reported by the military commissioner appointed to examine them. The Roberts breech-loader fired 84 balls in six minutes, an average of 14 in one minute, all striking inside the target, and penetrating 15 one-inch planks laid side by side. The Sharpe's rifle fired 100 balls in less than seven minutes, and penetrated the thirteenth plank. The Millbank rim-fire gun fired 99 balls in six minutes and a half, and penetrated the eleventh plank. The Lansom gun fired 12 balls in one minute. Ball's carbine expelled 75 balls in nine minutes and a half. The Prussian needle gun, which was tested in the same way as the others, fired an averege of six to seven balls a minute, and penetrated the eleventh plank. The Remington breech-loader fired 100 balls in 6 minutes and 53 seconds, and penetrated the eleventh plank. REGATTA HATS .- Mr Adams, of Government street, has received, per Princess Royal, a splended assortment of men's and boys' hoating and regatta hats.

FROM THE SOUND-The New World, Cap Winsor, arrived from the Sound at 6:30 las evening with twenty-seven passengers and a small freight. The election for Delegate to Congress has resulted in the return of Mr Flanders with a majority of one hundred and eight over Mr Clark who returned from the Columbia River District on Friday evening. Preparations are being made for the celebration of the Fourth of July at Puget Sound. The Columbia Engine Company of Olympia advertise a grand ball to come off on the evening of the day in question. Victorians and excursionists generally are invited to be present.

EJECTMENT SUIT-Liniker vs. Bereneeuta -The trial of this suit in the Supreme Court resulted yesterday in a judgment being given for the plaintiff-defendant to hold possession until Jan. next and to pay costs. The Solicitor General, instructed by Mr Bishop, for plaintiff; -Mr Alston, instructed by Drake & Jackson, for defendant. We understand the decision will affect the titles of nearly all the claims on Salt Spring Island.

A TEST -A writer in the News proposes to canvass the town for a vote on the Annexation question. He wants those in favor to say "aye," and those opposed to vote no." The test is accepted. None but British subjects to vote; and the answers received with each vote to be carefully recorded in elzenso on the paper.

LIQUOR LICENSES-Three defaulters in the last instalment of retail liquor licenses were fined yeslerday $5 each by the Magistrate. A fresh batch of summonses will be issued to-day to other defaulters. Pay up, gentlemen, your dollars are wanted to keep the machinery of Government in motion. THEFT-We were yesterday informed of two recent instances of theft committed on the families of two of our citizens in the neighborhood of the Cemetery. We shall be bappy to give what information we possess to the police in order to lead to the discovery of the thieves: D. AND D .- A Nettinot Siwash came to town to see the "sights" on Sunday and, imbibing too freely of fire-water, became noisy and quarrelsome and fell into the hands of the police by whom he was conducted before the Stipendiary Magistrate and fined 5s Not the Man .- The John Wilson who was arrested for selling whisky to Indians, is not the John Wilson who dispenses the best brands of wines, liquors, ales and cigars at the corner of Government and Hambold streets. ARRIVAL - The American bark Moneyecks, with 100 tons of freight, consigned to C. T. Millard, arrived yesterday from San Francisco and has commenced discharging on the Hudson Bay Company's wharf. Spaing Goods-The assortment of Spring and Summer goods at Victoria House is now complete, the balance of their summer shipment having been received by steamer yesterday and comprises the very latest novelties. SIFFKEN'S WHARF .- The wharf of Siffken & Co., at the foot of Johnson street, has been will find the necessary implements at Vic-TORIA HOUSE (corner of Fort and Douglas streets), several sets having been received per Princess Royal.

RETURNED .- The thief, impelled thereto, no loubt, by our notice of yesterday, returned the till and the iktas stolen from the Boomerang Inn, but retained the dimes for the trouble he had been put to. Horse RACES .- A number of horse races and other amusements will come off over

Beacon Hill Course on Fourth of July, particulars of which will appear to-morrow. THE Isabel, with Mrs Seymour, Colonial Secretary Birch, Mr Stapleton, Mr Maunsell

A SENSE OF DUTY-A widower of three months, over 50 years of age, wished to marry a young lady of 24, but being a mem-ber of the church, wished the approbation of the memoers, and called on the deacon He told the deacon that he was going to marry from a sense of duty—that having property he left the ought to give some one a home. The deacon thought the lady in home. The deacon thought the lady in question had a good home already, and if that was his object simply, he had better marry Aunt L, who was old, poor and infirm, with a family of children on her hands. The widower left without being able to see the matter in that light.

SHARP-A man in Connecticut obtained a winter's supply of excellent potatoes in the following cute manner: He gave out word he was desirous of obtaining a specimen of the best sort of potatoes and would pay three dollars for a peck of such himself to judge; Potatoes poured into his cellar from all the country round, and when the avalanche had subsided, the man handed over his three dollars for the best peck, and the next spring sold potatoes enough to more than cover the original outlay, besides having had a first quality article for home use all the winter. Englishmen are brought up to respect sections things, and Frenchmen to laugh at

An Effectual and Speedy Remedy,

Farnan's Specific bas stood the test of years, and it beneficial influence, as well as the extraordinary rapidity with which it acts on the system and removes pain and the cuse of pain—that it osay, the condition of the blood and stomach which produced the affliction—can be witnessed to by themsands. The cure is as computer as it is rapin, and, strengthened by the testimonies of a large body of patients who have received almost in-STANTANBOUS relief after all other remedies have affield, the proprietor has the utmeat confidence in offering it to the notice of the public. To the constitution it is harmless; to the fluids of the human frame it adds a healthy impetus; to the system generally it is invigorating to a degree unprarileded; and both seace may take it to equal advantage. A dose taken about once a month, operates most effectually in preventing a return of the compilaint.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to produce the most effectual alterative that can be made. It is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidots for the diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellowitizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found of the following complaints:

PREPARED BY

DR. J. C. AYER & CO.,

Price, $1 per Bottle; Six Bottles fer 85.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Throat and Lung Complaint, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its vitnes, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant us throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

Price 25 cents per Box; Five Boxes for $1.00.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of these remedies, but our space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratis our American Al-Manac in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the above complaints, and the treatment that should be followed for their cure.

It regenerates the constitution by purifying the blood, and is, in a word, the most powerful deparative known. At last, it is very efficacious in the diseases of the skin.

and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from Implinity of the Blood.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at liat season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, cruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, cruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulura of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the GRIMAULT'S SYRUP OF HYPHOSPHATE OF LIME. This now medicine is a sovereign remedy in phthis it it is because of the laugh, promptly removes all the most serious symptoms. The cough is relieved; the night sweats cease, and the patient rapidly recovers health.

all the virtue that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations, pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous Where all other preparations have failed, these pre-parations will always effect a cure. These insure rapid cure will always effect a cure. These insure rapid cases of privite diseases. They are used in the hospi-late of Paris, by the celebrated by Re, rd, and are found greatly superior to all hitherto known mineral remedies and copaib and cubebs. The injection is used in recent and capsules in more chronic cases. which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall reseue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete cradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.
